Plastic Swap

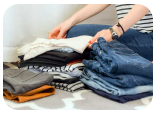

Your plastic swap checklist

Eight swaps that cut the plastic in your home. Check each one off as you make it, and tap a product to open it on Amazon.

Kitchen

☐		Cutting board Plastic to wood or bamboo	A plastic board can shed about 79 million particles a year.	Allsum extra thick bamboo cutting board on Amazon
☐		Spatulas and spoons Plastic to wood, bamboo or stainless steel	Plastic tools wear down against hot pans.	Zulay Kitchen 6-piece teak utensil set on Amazon
☐		Food storage Plastic to glass or stainless steel	Heat can leak BPA and phthalates into food. Heat it with the lid off.	Rubbermaid Brilliance glass containers, set of 9 on Amazon
☐		Reheating Plastic to ceramic or glass	Microwaving plastic released up to 4 million particles per square centimeter.	Pyrex 2-quart glass baking dish on Amazon
☐		Water bottle Bottled water to a steel or glass bottle	A liter of bottled water held about 240,000 plastic particles.	Klean Kanteen 27 oz stainless steel bottle on Amazon
☐		Tea Plastic tea bags to loose-leaf	One plastic tea bag released about 11.6 billion particles into a cup.	Ohtomber stainless steel tea infuser on Amazon

Closet

☐		Clothes and underwear Polyester and nylon to cotton, linen or wool	One load of polyester laundry can shed about 496,000 fibers.	Amazon Essentials men's cotton boxer briefs Amazon Essentials women's cotton briefs on Amazon

Around the house

☐		Dust Letting it build up to vacuuming often	Microplastics settle into dust. Vacuum often.	Nothing to buy

Sources: Consumer Reports, 2024 and 2025; American Academy of Pediatrics, 2018; UW Medicine; Yadav et al., 2023; Hussain et al., 2023; Qian et al., 2024; Hernandez et al., 2019; Napper and Thompson, 2016. Full list and research at odyssey-jotun.github.io/plastic-swap